A Brief Bio ~

Born in Los Angeles, California, Kandi Lee spent most of her childhood in Europe attending German schools. While living in Germany, Kandi Lee traveled across the continent speaking to groups about cultural awareness and bridging the gap between the European and American cultures.

Her Career ~

In 1998 Kandi began her career as a corporate trainer with NOS Communications. In her career as a NOS she personally trained coached and mentored over 40,000 sales associates. As a corporate trainer she revolutionized her firm's training program by incorporating multiple aspects of personal growth training with traditional training topics. In 2001, Kandi Lee was hired as advanced Sales Manger for PSI Seminars, a personal growth and leadership training company. During her tenure at PSI Seminars Kandi Lee managed multiple departments and created advanced sales training programs.

Come join us and hear this dynamic woman speak, so you too can be a Maniac on a Mission!

Her Vision ~

In 2004, Kandi Lee had a vision to start her own company. When she looked at her bank account she had $1.11 to start her company. She took the $1.11 and put it in an envelope under her pillow and from that moment on became a Maniac on a Mission. Immediately Kandi Lee felt both fear and excitement; had a paradigm shift - a shift in the purpose and vision of her life. Kandi Lee decided that she would no longer be limited by her bank account. She made a commitment to take care of her daughter, take charge of her life and create One-Eleven Companies.

Recognition ~

Kandi Lee and One Eleven Companies recently have been featured in many local and national publications including; The Phoenix Business Journal, Phoenix Women's Magazine, Broker International and WomenPost.ca, Kandi has also been a featured guest on more than dozen TV and radio programs, including The Big Idea With Donny Deutsch.
